THE SALVATION OF SOCIETY.

Rev. W. E. Gilroy, pastor of the First Congregational Church, is using his pulpit for the discussion of the question of unemployment and kindred subjects which are attracting public attention just now, and his sermons indicate that he has given such social and industrial matters considerable study. Last evening he discussed socialism, pointing out that there are several brands of the doctrine, with a certain number of followers for each brand. Contrary to what some had erroneously led Mr. Gilroy to the conclusion that neither could social society unless it were learned with Christianity. In other words, no system could regenerate society if it is not based on the constituent parts were not first regenerated. The people have to be not only converted to the socialist doctrine, but they must be converted to the Christian doctrine. And this is where the trouble begins. Were we all imbued with the spirit of Christ, with the Golden Rule, and the Sermon on the Mount, society would be able to get along under almost any kind of a system. There would be no need to go to any other where we would wish to be done by. The real question to our mind, however, is how to save society with the people as they are and with the means at our disposal. We cannot afford to wait for the millennium. We must wait for it to all now—not in the distant future.

Can society be saved with or without socialism? Competition and individualism are the two main forces in the struggle. At least, it does not prevent poverty, unemployment or even starvation. Substitute for the word "socialism" the words "public ownership" and we believe a common ground of argument will be sooner reached. Socialism is little understood by the average man. He associates it with anarchism, and the taking from the man who has, what he has not, and the man who has will have none of it. Public ownership is more easily understood, and is socialist in principle. We have public ownership in our city government. Board of Works, the Waterworks, and the Hydro-Electric Department are all run on the principle of public ownership. Would such a principle applied to all our industries save society? Were all our large industrial concerns and our railways owned and run by the Government, by the people, would that be for the general advantage of the public? We know how civil affairs are usually run, and we know how the Government runs its affairs. Suppose all the activities were in the hands of the people, would they be run any better? Would it still be necessary to have trade unions, and would the workingmen's question still be with us? What would become of the people? Would everybody get a fair share? And when hard times came, how about the people who held the most property? Perhaps a Government pension scheme would solve the latter difficulty.

Then there is human nature to consider. We have the inefficient, the lazy, the dissolute, the unfit, the ignorant and the degenerate. What system, whether it be socialism or any other system, would place and keep them above the bread line? Rev. Mr. Gilroy has raised some questions that need to be solved. Who can solve them?

WHAT'S THE MATTER.

Last week's letters appeared in the local newspapers asking what the School Trustees had done with the proposition of Principal Thompson to change the hours of the Children's Institute. To this one of the local papers answered that the Trustees were too busy making things "comfy" for their own friends and in buying an automobile for their Secretary, to bother themselves with Mr. Thompson's scheme, or to take any interest in the welfare of the pupils. This statement has been met with silent contempt, or, at least, with silence, by the Board. Now the Spectator on Saturday has made public a letter that a teacher had refused a sick child permission to leave the school for the result that it was found necessary to perform an operation on the child, the inference being that the child had been no operation if the child had been allowed to go home when it asked to go. But that is not all. The Spectator, Mr. George Allen, the Chairman of the School Board, as saying that the teachers do not know—that doctors who were trustees complained of the same thing, and that although parents complained, they were afraid to complain to the teachers, lest worse should come of it. When Mr. Allen puts it, "the parents were afraid to take any action for fear of what might happen to the child later on." This can only mean that if the child's parents find fault with crusading teacher, child, it will later be punished by the teacher. Can this possibly be true? If true, why does the Chairman allow such teachers to remain in the employment of the Board? This is a serious accusation to make against the teachers, and we are anxious to know what the Teachers' Association has to say about the matter.

NON-MILITANT SUFFRAGE.

Saturday's Times contained a lengthy cablegram from London, England, sent the previous evening, which was the year and giving some idea of the importance and strength of this movement. The cablegram was a review of the situation drawn up by the Press Association for the American and Canadian newspapers, and may be taken as a fair and careful presentation of the situation. The Spectator also published the same cablegram, and in doing so, it seems of fair play, suppressed it. It refused to do women even that justice. There are a large number of influential societies quietly working on behalf of the franchise. One of the most important is the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies. It has made plans for the campaign. We are told that practically all the greater women's organizations support women's suffrage, including the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, the Women's League, the Women's Franchise League, the Women's Social and Political Union, the Labor party, by a vote of 2 to 1, has declared that no extension of the franchise will get its support, unless women are included in the extension. The Trade Union Congress has decided in favor of women voting. The Liberal Women's Suffrage Union has added its influence on behalf of the women, and the Conservative Union has also added its influence. The fact that the Conservative Union showed itself sympathetic toward the movement.

This movement has nothing to do with the Pantheist people and campaign. It is not to be confused with them, and is working along legal and legitimate lines. The arguments used against militancy and 'ism cannot be used against this peaceful propaganda. The fact that the movement has been in the hands of the women, and the fact that it is a movement of women on the same terms as men.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

We are glad Sir James is home again. Mr. Gladstone should have a talk with General Borth.

If the emergency still exists why doesn't Mr. Borden do something?

Is there nothing the McKittrick syndicate could do to give a few men some employment?

When the Gidens get all the hotels supplied with Bibles, they might put a few in the city churches.

The way Premier Borden takes to drop the ball question out of politics is to lift his hand and say nothing about it.

Now that Krafchenko, alleged robber and murderer, is arrested, we can all go back to bed and catch up our lost sleep.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Company has discharged a lot of men who have been found drinking. This is a sad blow to the bar.

Sir James Whitney passed through Hamilton this morning in his private car "Sir James," on his way home to Toronto from New York. It is hoped that the change will make for his improvement.

Before the Prison Reform Commission on Saturday Mr. George A. Taylor testified that he had hired prison labor for four cents an hour, and that he had never made less than $3,000 a year profit, and had cleared as high as $120,000. This is fine news, who subscribe $500 to the Tory campaign fund and who Mr. Hanna accepted. He could well afford to have made it a thousand dollars.

Shall Winston Churchill quit the Asquith Government, and the Liberal party and form a new political party of his own, is a question that the British press are discussing. In the meantime Mr. Churchill is silent. The cleavage appears to be between him and Mr. Lloyd-George, and we would not be surprised that some day Mr. Churchill will be asked to retire. But the retirement would neither hurt the Chancellor of the Exchequer nor the Asquith Government.

A father in Israel has fallen in the person of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Ward, who has just died in Montreal. The deceased minister faithfully served his Lord and Master for forty-five years, first in Ottawa and then in Quebec, and he was much a distinguished member by being elevated to the highest position in his clerg. He was the father of Mr. W. H. Wardrop, K.C., of this city, to whom the Times tender its sympathy.

Mr. E. N. Lewis, M.P. for West Huron, proposes to introduce a resolution of the Dominion Parliament his daylight saving bill. The idea is to set back the clocks of the country during certain months of the year, so that the early morning hours when the daylight can be utilized for labor while the long light evenings can be taken advantage of for recreation. In other words, the proposition is to give the people a chance to sleep while it is dark, and work and play while it is daylight. The proposal has several features to commend it. The principal objection is the demoralizing of railway time-tables, etc.

WOULD SETTLE NAVAL QUESTION.

(Guelph Mercury.)
Conservative and Liberal in the House would get to get down to some basis of settlement in the contest between the two parties. The Liberal Government has been dropped, a little common sense and a desire to have Canada prospered would make a solution of the problem comparatively easy.

TITLES AND THEIR AUTHORS.

(Montreal Daily Star.)
A condition of affairs in which the public is left to guess the origin of most titles for titles is far from desirable. The fact that the title of a book is opening up has more in it than appears on the surface. It denotes a certain amount of knowledge and a definite position which will give these titles a definite place.

ONE WOMAN'S GOOD MOVE.

(Philadelphia Record.)
The almonster, "Go thou and do likewise," is instantly suggested by the story from Chicago of a woman who, after her husband's death, and her social position and sent the sum she had spent upon it to her husband's poor relatives in the United States. This is a fine deed, and it is in a position to reciprocate, and therefore her treasure will be laid up in Heaven.

(London Morning Advertiser.)
If you were to ask the man on the street to name a single act of constructive legislation originally devised and carried through in the twenty-eight months of the century, he would find difficulty in naming it. Laurier and his Cabinet brought some outstanding legislation into every session of Parliament, penny postage, immigration, Grand Trunk Pacific, and they went down to defeat on the great Laurier bill, which produced the building of Canada's century.

Japan proudly refers to her "elder statesmen" and will put a new stamp of a new political youth to the world. It is not known that the elder statesmen really are in question, it is the question of the youth of the statesmen. Mr. Walter Harris, who lives back of Mount Hamilton, sustained a rather bad fall on Saturday, when his horse, which was attached to a cutter, ran away, throwing him into the ditch. The horse was stopped further down the road and Harris was conveyed to his home in the sleigh of a farmer who was passing. Harris was not hurt, but his horse was injured and was unable to proceed again by the end of the week. KRAFCHENKO IN THE TOILS

is Captured Again.

REID IN TROUBLE

Ex-Hamiltonian Arrested
For Complicity in Escape.

Winnipeg, Jan. 18.—John Krafchenko, the most wanted man in Canada, charged with robbing the Bank of Montreal branch at Plum Coulee, and killing Manager H. M. Arnold, was arrested in the city in an apartment block on Toronto street shortly after 11 o'clock to-night. He was alone in the suite when the police broke in the door, and was sitting quietly on a chair smoking a cigarette. He submitted to arrest by Chief Macpherson without a fight of any kind. He was sharing the apartment with John Westlake, an employee of the Security Storage Co., who is said to have formerly been a clerk in the office of Percy Hagel, counsel or Krafchenko.

Crippled by a badly strained leg, Krafchenko made no effort at resistance and uttered no protest. John Westlake, living with him in the small suite in which he was taken, was arrested on a charge of "aiding, abetting and comforting."

Krafchenko's sensational escape from the Winnipeg city jail on January 10, followed by the unusually heavy reward of $11,000, has captured the public by the ears, made every move made by the police watched by hundreds of eyes. When the police officers gathered before the Security Storage Warehouse late to-night a crowd of one thousand people collected.

BURTON AND HAMILTON, ARRESTED.
The day has been full of incidents leading up to the final capture. Following the arrest of Donald Reid, a native of Lucknow, Ont., and who was on the Toronto police force in 1908-10, and a former Hamilton detective, one of the guards at the time of the bank's escape, John E. Burton, formerly secretary of the Winnipeg Builders' Exchange, was arrested this morning for complicity in the affair, and in the evening, Percy Hagel, Krafchenko's counsel, himself was arrested.

It is understood to have been through information secured from Burton that the police made a swoop on the premises of the Security Storage Company. A thorough search failed to reveal Krafchenko there, but information wormed out of Westlake's office friends resulted in a rush for the Barris block on Toronto street. Here he was found in a dimly lighted room in the small apartment.

Chief Macpherson himself led the party into the room and made the arrests. With his gun ready the Chief advanced on Krafchenko, and placing his hands on his shoulders said: "Well, Jack, we've got you. If you play square we'll treat you right." "All right," said the bandit, who everyone said would shoot on sight. He rose from the chair with apparent difficulty, and it is believed that in his escape a week ago from the police station he fell with the breaking of the rope that let him down from the high window and thus strained his leg.

The arrest to-night created extraordinary excitement throughout the city. No happening since Winnipeg was a city has created so much popular interest. To-night crowds are standing in front of The Free Press building, staring at the simple announcement that the bandit is safe in the Provincial jail. The arrest was made entirely by the city police.

ST. LUKE'S Epiphany Entertainments Were Held This Week.

The Epiphany entertainments of St. Luke's Sunday school were held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of last week. After tea was served by the committees of teachers, programmes of recitations and music followed. The primary class were visited by their benefactor, Santa Claus, to their intense delight. Each pupil received a gift, at his hands, from the well-laden tree. The school all prevailing was evidenced by the many gifts from teachers to pupils, and from pupils to teachers. Mr. Benjamin Walling, organist and librarian for many years past, was given a handsome book case by the teachers. The teachers of the primary class, books, and a gold pendant cross from their pupils, and the teacher a valuable time, several volumes of books and a purse of money. REALTY BOOM IN BURLINGTON

Things Look Very Bright
For the Coming Season.

A BOARD OF TRADE

Might Do Much Good For the Town.

Burlington, Jan. 19.—Burlington is growing, and is a town now in point of population. The 2,000 limit has been passed, and the citizens are going to be possessed of a mayor about midsummer day. Burlington's fame is still spreading as a health resort, and there is no wonder, for do not the citizens possess the best drinking water in the whole of Ontario? And nowhere is the air more pure and salubrious, and as for the soil it holds its own for produce in the whole Niagara peninsula. Burlington is going to be the great residential town for the merchants of both Toronto and Hamilton. Witness the stride she has taken in the last three years. Merchants have come down from both these centres and find a home in the pleasure spot called beautiful Burlington. The citizens are charmed with the situation. The real estate men are looking forward to the spring, when this year land deals are going to be more important than ever. Plans are being made for houses and bungalows all over the beautiful site in town. Apple Park is going to be the home of the builder this season, and Lakeside survey is going to be the scene of some activity, while Crescent Park is going to awake out of its lethargy and be busy. From all sides the citizens hear of some stir in the town in 1914. The places of amusement are multiplying fast, and the picture theatre is to be enlarged and to be extended thirty feet in order to show the latest pictures. The town is about to have a new building, an almost luxurious building as it stands at present. Then there is the new skating rink building on Elgin street, and by all accounts it is going to be an up-to-date building, which will be ready by the month of May.

Now the Agricultural Society is looking about for land whereon to locate their annual show and place substantial buildings upon it and make a race track. Then there is Burlington Junction some largely as a place of interest if the Hendrie scheme goes through for making a race track and training stable for Hamilton sportsmen. Only a mile from the town of Burlington by a straight road the town will be a mile in every way if this scheme goes through, and add much to its activity and wealth.

Of course there is always the possible and probable trunk cement highway going through the centre of the town by East street, which will make and put Burlington on the map forever, and all the merchants are striving to put the scheme through. All these ideas and schemes certainly will see a great change in the town. One thing is lacking at present and that is a Board of Trade and a publicity committee for the town must have more factories. Factories mean more wages and by earning money workmen live. Let Burlington flourish in the wish of all her citizens.

THE ULSTER "ARMY"

The Leaders Claim to Have
Over 100,000 Men.

London, Jan. 18.—The leaders of the Ulster Unionists claim to have enrolled more than the 100,000 men they started to get for their volunteers who are to act as an army to fight Home Rule. The signalling and despatch riding corps were over-represented. The Orange leaders have arranged a postal service for every town of any importance, and medical and nursing services have been created. Seven hundred women have qualified as members of the first-aid-to-the-injured organization in Belfast alone. Other women meet regularly and make bandages and other hospital appliances. Two big hospitals have been arranged for Belfast, and small clearing hospitals for other places. The Marchioness of Dufferin has offered her residence at Clarendon as a convalescent home. Arrangements are also under way for the purchase of a big convalescent ship.

HIS LIFE FOR A LUNATIC.

Vancouver, B.C., Jan. 18.—James Paisley, a seaman aboard the Grand Trunk liner Prince Rupert, lost his life last evening as the vessel was entering Vancouver harbor. He jumped overboard in a vain attempt to rescue Charles Anderson, a lunatic who was being brought from Rupert to the Westminster Asylum. Anderson had been in charge of a policeman, but got away while the officer was at dinner. Anderson leaped overboard and was followed by Paisley. The steamer was stopped and a boat put out, but neither man was seen again.

Centennials to Meet I. O. O. F. on Wednesday

Both Teams Expect to Win and a Good Hard Battle Can be Looked for.

Only three days separate the hockey fans in Hamilton from what will be the greatest hockey game ever played in this city, and it reports are level up to the game will be even faster than the one played last Wednesday night, when the Centennials and Hamilton Hockey Club met for the first time in the newly formed schedule. The same two teams will meet again on Wednesday night in the second game, and as the Centennials are still stinging over the defeat of the last game, they are going into the next one with the do or die intention, and if they do not get away with a win there will be more than one man disappointed. The members of the Centennial Club and also the players are picking up every bit of change they can get their hands on to bet on the outcome of next Wednesday's game, and if they fall in their attempt to get back to the top, they feel that they will certainly be a sore bunch.

Captain Phillips has issued instructions to every man on the Hamilton Hockey Club to practice every night in preparation for the game with the Centennials. The hockey players are practicing twice Wednesday night and Friday night, and the players are expected to be given a chance later in the season.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—The victory of St. Michael's over Varsity Saturday afternoon in a senior O.H.A. game had more at stake than the game itself. Varsity were supposed to be the team which would give St. Michael's a run for the group leaders, and when they lost they were given a chance later in the season. Not a doubt was left in the minds of the 2,500 spectators as to who were the best team Saturday afternoon, although the score of 1-0 was a true indication of the play, as the Saints scored two of their goals by failure of a Varsity player to get the puck away from the mouth of his goal, while another was scored when a pass by Laflamme glided in off the stick of the goal.

However, as Varsity scored two of their goals in the last of the period, it will be seen that the Saints had a big margin throughout. At all times they were ahead by two goals. It was the most spectacular game of the season, with both teams playing splendid combination. Varsity attempted more work than they are usually given by them, but they were out of luck. Three of them would go down together, with only Murphy and Desjardis to beat, and the result was by this can be attributed to a certain extent to good work of the St. Michael's defense, and then, the result was contributed to the fact that the Varsity forwards had been so much in the game, they were inclined to slacken their speed, thus making it easier for Desjardis and Richardson.

The difference between the two defenses practically was for St. Michael's to play the puck out of the game, and to go far apart, thus forcing the Varsity forwards to go in. Varsity played the puck out of the game, and to go far apart, thus forcing the Varsity forwards to go in. was well filled Saturday evening with spectators from Preston and Galt to witness the O.H.A. intermediate hockey game between Preston and Galt teams. The score at half-time was 3 to 1 in favor of the Preston team, and the final was 7 to 2 in favor of the home boys. Game was fast all the time, but the winning goal was scored around the Galt net most of the evening, and had it not been for the heroic work of Galt's goalkeeper, the Preston bunch would have had a big margin.

The line-up: Preston—Goal, Smith; defense, Bowman, Walker, center, Blair, Taylor, Robinson, wing, Murray, Bell. Galt—Goal, Gravel; defense, Royer, Bullock, center, Shaw, Taylor, Denis, McKellar, Driver, wing, Fraser, Paris.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—Cleveland defeated the Midland seven at the City Athletic Club Saturday night in a game that wound up in a great flourish. Speed and combination play, fast and accurate, were the main features of the contest. Progressed players bent every effort to win, with the result that success was theirs.

(By Times Special Wire.) Chicago, Jan. 19.—Eight of the nine umpires who will officiate in the American League next season have been named by President Ben Johnson. The list includes Sheridan, O'Loughlin, Connelly, Dineen, Eva, Hildebrand and Chitt. The only new one is Chitt, who was in the American Association last year.

While the Federals were holding forth at the La Salle, a secret story was going on in another part of the loop. The committee was composed of: President Hermann, of Cincinnati, in the National League, and President Navin, of Detroit, in the American League. Han Johnson, president of the American League, was with the big league managers.

When Wegman was located the first question put to him was: "Is the truth in the report that you are going to drop the Federal League and join the big league?"
